

User Story of Auction Central

| Epic | Title | User Story | Description | Acceptance Criteria | Priority |
|---|----------------------------|---------------------------|---|--|----------|
| As an administrator of Auction Central , I want to take supervision and control of the auction process, so that the auction houses, banks and clients may follow regulations and the auction can proceed smoothly. | Auction Preparation | Process Requests | The administrator give acceptance to the auction house and also the clients to, so that they can join in the auction. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * log in to the auction system * navigate to the home page * access a messages' checklist * accept and send request messages * view or edit the status for candidate users | Critical |
| | | Access Information | The administrator can view all information as any registered entities in an auction is asked to login providing the ID and password with a specific IP address, so that I would protect personal privacy. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * edit and update an existing page of registered auction house users * view all of the applicable information sections and materials required in the auction process | High |
| | | Check Items | The administrator could assist in pricing of lots which will be shown in the item page, so that I can confirm legality of the item features and status. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * navigate to a page to review items * assign to auction house owner to make updates of items | Medium |
| | | Revoke Items | The administrator could dismiss unacceptable lots, so that bidding items are ensured valid. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * select one or multiple unacceptable lots like expired items * remove unacceptable items | Medium |
| | Auction Management | Checking Clients | The administrator is allowed to access clients list to, so that I can check the personal data. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * get the ID, IP address * get the account status of the client in the auction * give access to the client for being a bidder | Low |
| | | Process Bidding Requests | Prices given by different clients will be sent to me, so that I can compare them. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Receive different bids * compare bids * choose the highest one | Critical |
| | | Show Auction Results | The administrator will publicize the winner of the bid, so that all participants can get information in time. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * determine and show the highest price to all related users * send results to all bidders and the auction house * take off and delete the items * notify the auction house | High |
| | | Coordinate with the banks | The administrator can require the bank for the client's final payment, so that the successful completion of the auction is guaranteed. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * view the payment status of the winner * assign the payment information to the bank for review | Medium |
| | | Record user feedbacks | The administrator could provide tips for possible actions and receive feedbacks, so that the system can get improvement. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * send and receive feedback messages from users | Low |